Cleaning Instructions:

Moshi's Codex collection is carefully crafted with a combination of high-resilience polymeric hybrid material that resembles a brushed metal surface and a cushioned inner lining to prevent scratches. The outer surface of Codex has been treated to be splash-repellent and can be cleaned with commercial leather cleaners. The inner lining of Codex is constructed with a Terahedron™ microfiber which can be treated with a damp cloth in conjunction with suede cleaner. Never use bleach or any harsh solvents on Codex. Let Codex dry naturally after cleaning. Do not machine wash or dry clean Codex.
