DESCRIPTION :

The Silicone Back Cover is designed with functionality and style in mind. Made with high-performance liquid silicon rubber for an easy grip while sustaining a silky-soft feel all across your iPhone, it's your perfect daily style icon. The cover offers a perfect fit with a raised bezel to protect your screen. The case protects against bumps and falls up to 1 meter. Gone are the days of lens scratches, and blurry spots in your photos as the raised metal camera ring, with a new contrasting finish, means maximum protection for your camera lens as well. The new inlay and updated branding are the subtle details that'll make all the difference in your look. All our latest cases are compatible with MagSafe. Making it easier for you to simply snap
