DESCRIPTION :

The Model Three has essentially remained the same since its introduction about 9 years ago. With its unmatched sound quality, sensitive analog AM/FM tuner, easy-to-use alarm and sleep functions, and beautiful natural wood cabinet, there was no reason to mess with perfection. But with the increased reliance on smartphones and tablets, we decided that one change would make the Model Three even more essential: Bluetooth wireless technology. Now you can wirelessly stream your music from your compatible Bluetooth phone, tablet, or computer to the Model Three BT. Simply set the Model Three BT to auxiliary, pair and connect your device, and start streaming. The traditional auxiliary input is still available for those non-Bluetooth wireless technology devices. Any alarm clock can wake you up, but only Tivoli Audio's new Model Three BT can do it simply, elegantly, and in high-fidelity sound. And now with Bluetooth wireless technology on board, you can stream before you dream.
