DESCRIPTION :

The new Duex Max DS 14-inch IPS screen is able to connect USB C and HDMI for widely compatibility with 14" to 17" laptops. The magnetic and sliding designs extend your view from laptop ergonomically, not necessarily swivel your heads too much compared with desktop portable monitor. This laptop monitor extender is attached to your laptop as integrated design, making it more portability.

STRENGTHS :

- Lightweight Portable Monitor, Easy to Carry

Weighing only 1.8lbs and measuring just 0.60 inches in thickness, this portable laptop monitor is lightweight and compact, making it effortless to carry in your bag or briefcase. It's ideal for business trips, vacations, or for those who work remotely. Take your work on the go with this external monitor for laptop.

- Plug-and-play, Multiple Use Modes

With this laptop screen extender monitor portable, you can say goodbye to complicated setups and messy cables. Simply connect it to your laptop via USB Type-C/HDMI, and you're ready to go. No software or drivers are required. You can adjust the screen to your liking and choose from multiple modes: attachment mode, rotated monitor, portrait mode, horizontal mode and presentation mode.

- Compatible with Multiple Devices and Systems

The second monitor for laptop is incredibly versatile and compatible with a wide range of devices and systems. It can be used with laptops, phones, and switches, and is also compatible with Windows, Mac, and Android systems. Whether you need an additional screen for work or entertainment, this device is the perfect solution.
