DESCRIPTION :

The foldable design and adjustable hinges make the stand highly portable and convenient for travel. It includes its own USB-C PD 45W power adapter and cable for added convenience, plus four international plugs – US, EU, AU, and UK – so you can quickly and conveniently charge your devices wherever you go. Its foldable arm is made of sleek recycled aluminum, while the AirPods charging pad at its base is crafted from black vegan leather. The top hinge allows you to effortlessly adjust your device on the stand, while the bottom hinge enables it to fold for ultimate portability. The watch component is retractable and can easily snap upright to minimize space when not in use.
