DESCRIPTION :

This Rugged case is designed to fit your device perfectly, offering ultimate 360° protection without being too bulky. Simply snap your tablet into the rugged shell and it's ready for everyday use, whether at work or at home. Practical details such as an automatic alarm clock and display function make this case a pleasure to use.

High-quality protection to military standards

This Rugged case has been designed and manufactured to be durable and robust, offering the best everyday protection for your tablet. The tablet itself stays securely in place after being clipped into the sturdy shell, while the front protects the screen from damage. To guarantee the highest quality, the case has been tested to meet the strict requirements of military standard MIL-STD-810H.

Optimum ease of use

The case has all the appropriate openings to allow easy access to your tablet's various ports. So you can also use the camera without removing the tablet from the case, for example. What's more, thanks to a magnet integrated into the case, your tablet's alarm clock function works automatically.
